PERSONAL PROFILE

A purpose-driven and creative individual with an academic background in Arabic Literature and cross-sector experience spanning Non-Bank Financial Institution, professional certification institutions, and organizational events. I have contributed to business feasibility analysis, data management, report preparation, as well as publication and event documentation strategies. With skills in communication, graphic design, and web development, I am able to integrate analysis, creativity, and technology to overcome challenges. My background is further strengthened by language proficiency (Indonesian, Arabic, English, and basic Turkish) and professional training in Adobe Photoshop and web development. I aspire to grow within dynamic teams by delivering innovative and impactful solutions.
